HIS Majesty having graciously condescended to grant his Royal Letters Patent unto Edward Calvert, for the sole making and vending (excepting such as the Patentee shall authorise for that Purpose) his new invented and most excellent Violet Cordial.—The Patentee therefore begs Leave to inform the Publick, that the said Cordial has by Experience been approved, and by Judges of great Skill and Abilities, is esteemed and recommended for its salutary Effects, in reviving the Animal Spirits, expelling the Wind, and helping Digestion: It gives a comfortable Warmth to the Stomach, and has a most agreeable fragrant Flavour, superior to the fine Cordials that have hitherto been in Use.
